

Gold Book Celebrations

Swan

Heron

Gold Book Celebrations For Heron Class

18th September 2020

Malek

Aiden

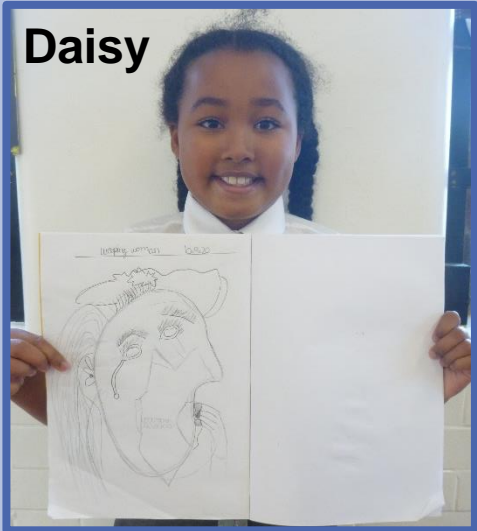

Michael

Michael has been working hard and showing independence in his work by listening carefully when instructions are given.

Daisy

An amazing self-portrait. Aiden looked carefully in the mirror and drew exactly what he could see. The likeness of his sketch is fantastic.

Aphra

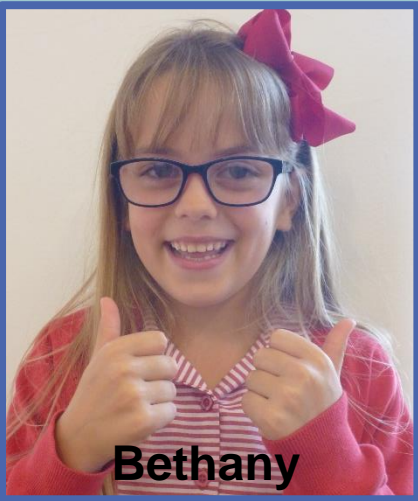

A fantastic interpretation of Picasso's painting 'Weeping Woman'. Aphra looked closely at the colours Picasso used and tried to recreate them in her own work.

A fantastic interpretation of Picasso's painting 'Weeping Woman'. Daisy looked carefully at the shapes and outlines and made a brilliant sketch.

Gold Book Celebrations For Swan Class 18th September 2020

Bethany

Bethany shared very insightful thoughts and ideas whilst contributing to our class discussion in English.

Esme

Esme helped to ensure everyone knew where to find books and how to follow the school routines; this made everyone included new members of the class feel welcome.

Thea

Thea always works extremely hard putting maximum effort into all subjects. This is a superb attitude at the start of Year 4.

Ayaan

Ayaan is always polite and courteous to his peers and adults. He took responsibility for welcoming a new pupil ensuring that he had a friend to play with at play and lunch times.

Layla

Layla sketched a replica of Picasso's Weeping Woman and the detail is exceptional. This is amazing art work.