They also consider the meaning and purpose of the organisation, that they are a member of, and are encouraged to speak out on different issues that affect them.
Any children who are members of these organisations may wear their uniform to school on World Thinking Day Wednesday 22nd February.

Tuesday 14th February for 3 days

Ewell Grove held their first Careers Fair, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Thank you to all our parent volunteers for giving up your time and coming to speak to and inspire the children about the wide world of work. "Wow, this is amazing" was one reaction from a Year 6 child and our volunteers spoke highly of their behaviour and engagement. "They were all so polite and asked some great (interesting) questions. They all listened carefully to my answers and it was a great opportunity to explain our trade."

SURREY HEARTLANDS HEALTH & CARE PARTNERSHIP

This leaflet attached has been developed at a time when we are seeing a rise in attendances at A&Es and increasing pressures on the health system. NHS services are there for those who need them and choosing the right service helps make sure that parents get the right help for their child.

To help keep A&E for people who are critically unwell and urgently need help, it provides information and advice about the full range of help available to parents of young children 24/7.

The resource aims to help parents navigate the local health system more easily and provides bite sized explanations of the help you can expect from pharmacies, NHS 111, Surrey 0-19 advice line, Call a Midwife and other NHS services. It also includes a one-page guide to keep at hand where you'll find all important contact details for local NHS services and details of links to further support.
