

THE BODY COACH – JOE WICKS

We are thrilled to announce that Ewell Grove has been chosen for a special visit from the celebrity Body Coach, Joe Wicks! This visit will take place on Monday 20th May 9:00am – 10:30am.

Joe will start the day with a 30-minute work out on the playground and we would like to invite our Ewell Grove families to be part of this exciting start to the day. However, there is one condition. Everyone must join in!

Joe will then spend some time with the children inspiring them to lead healthy lifestyles as well answering some of their questions.

The children will need to wear their PE kits for this event. Any adults taking part, please ensure you have suitable footwear for the workout! We will be continuing the theme of being active throughout the week leading up to the Ewell Grove Games.

The area on the playground will be prioritised for the children and we will allocate a space behind the children for families taking part.

Children must be at school for 8:45am for a prompt start at 9:00am.

CHICK HATCHING 13TH TO 24TH MAY

This is a wonderful opportunity for the children to witness chicks hatching whilst learning all about their care and environment; the children will be visiting them daily.

If you would like to know more about this experience, please click on the link Living Eggs.

Chick Hatching is being paid for out of the Children's Activity Fund.

We are seeking volunteers for 'Chick Sitting' for the weekend of 17th- 19th May. Names will be drawn out of a hat and the lucky Sitter will be contacted by phone no later than Thursday 16th May.

If you would like to enter the draw please email Tamsin Christie at info@ewell-grove.surrey.sch.uk by 9:00am Wednesday 15th May with the following message:

"I would like my name to be included in the 'Chick Sitter Draw' and understand that I must collect the chicks on Friday 17th May by 3:30pm and look after them responsibly for the weekend and bring them back on Monday 20th May by 9:00am".

D-DAY ANNIVERSARY

For the D-Day commemoration the Bourne Hall Museum would like school children to write poems remembering this longest day – the men and women who took part and the debt we all owe to them.

Some of the poems will be read out at the Council's Civic Service on 6th June in Epsom Market Place, by the children who wrote them.

All the poems should be sent to David Brooks at dbrooks@epsom-ewell.gov.uk by 31st May.
